Warner of Northumberland, followed by addresses by Rev. E. A. Sharrets of Berwick, and Rev. J. Yutzy of Selinsgrove, the same Pastors administering the Holly Communion.

The second session was opened Tuesday morning with devotional services led by Rev. M. L. Shindel of Danville. The chairman and secretary being absent, Rev. P. A. Heilman and Rev. C. W. Irvine of Williamsport, a member of the West Branch Conference as also F. P. Manhart of Philadelphia, who has surrendered his charge and taken the position of financial secretary for the Selinsgrove Theological Semmary, were both received as advisory members. The chairman appointed Rev. A. N. Warner and J. K. Bittenbender as tellers. The following permanent officers were elected: President Rev. P. A. Heilman; Secretary, Rev. C. W. Sechrist; Teasurer, Rev. A. N. Warner. The President appointed the following committee: On paper, Rev. M. L. Shindel, Rev. J. Yutzy, J. K. Bittenbender; On Resolutions, Rev. U. Myers, J. L. Wolverton and H. Morrison; On Minutes Rev. C. M. Aurands, W. H. Calhoun and J. D. Workheiser.

Rev. A. N. Warner as treasurer submitted his report, showing a balance of $14.74 in the treasury; report received and referred to the following auditing committee; J. K. Bittenbender, and J. Martz. Rev. C. W. Sechrist as chairman of Committee on programme, made his report, by calling attention to the programme and stating that he had an expense of $2 85 for printing and postage. The programme was prepared for the Candy church, but fearing bad roads and on account of the earnest request of the people at Espy the place of meeting was changed to the latter. The subject for discussion, Art. XVII of the Augsbury Confession was handled in a masterly manner by Rev. J. Yutzy of Selinsgrove, followed by Rev. A. N. Warner of Northumberland. At the third session Tuesday afternoon a report was made by the committee appointed to look after the matter of establishing a Lutheran church at Berwick. An organization has been formed with a membership of 65, and Rev. C. M. Aurands called to take charge of it. Rev. U. Meyers gave a very intersting talk on the subject of "How and when to read and study the Bible." The delegates from the various congregations made their reports, that of Bloomsburg was the most encouraging report given. Rev E. A Sharretts gave a paper on the subject of "Family worship a necessity, how conducted and when," that was received with marked attention. By invitation Rev. F. P. Manhart, as financial secretary of the Missionary Institute, Selinsgrove, made a statement of the purposes and needs of that Institution, an effort is being made to erect new buildings, new library, and elevate the classical depaarment to a full collegiate institution. Tuesday evening's session was given particularly to the children, they occupied the front seats, and gave several spirited songs: Rev. P. A. Heilman handled the subject, "Are church Festivals and Entertainments warranteed by the Scriptures," in such a manner as to make it interesting to both old as well as young; after his discussion no one could be found who seemed willing to accept the affirmative side of the question. Very interesting talks were given by Rev. C. M. Aurand, of Berwick, Rev. J. Yutzy, of Selinsgrove and Rev. Irvine of Williamsport. The Wednesday morning session, and last one, was opened with Bible reading "The promises." led by Rev. C. M. Aurand of Berwick. Reports were made by the Auditing committee, by the committee on resolutions and the committee on Minutes. The place for next conference was not argued upon.

The subject of "Catechization in the home," received the earnest attention of all present. This was followed by the very interesting subject "Result of Revivals," and the Conference adjourned with a feeling that it was very profitable for all concerned, and that the good people of Espy had endeavored to out do themselves in their generous hospitality.

Just now many of the western railroads are trying to get advertising in the eastern papers by offering what is really no compensation whatever. They propose to give tickets to the editor for transportation over their lines, but the tickets are not transferable, and cannot be obtained by any one but the editor or some one wholly dependent upon him. As it does not cost the railroad any more to carry any body else than it does to carry the editor, we cannot see what difference it makes who uses the tickets. The reason is however that many who accept the proposition will never get a chance to use the tickets and thus the railroad never pays for the advertising it gets. If all the eastern papers would refuse to take such contracts, the western companies would offer something on which the papers could realize their money if they could not use the tickets themselves.

A new awning has been placed over the front window of the Farmers' National Bank.

Our Public Schools.

The Public Schools of Bloomsburg will close Wednesday May 17th. Appropriate exercises will be held in the Opera House. There will be a graduating class this year in the "Business Course" as well as also in the "Normal Course." The classes are larger than a year ago, and it is thought more will be able to pass a successful examination. There is one thing yet that some of our able citizens could do as an incentive to harder work on the part of the pupils. In Berwick and other towns prizes are offered for the best pupils in some particular branch of study. For example, one citizen will select Penmanship, another Mathematics, another essay or oration. If one or two of our liberal citizens would begin, others would soon follow, and the good derived from such a stimulus can not be estimated. Besides it would add much to the interest of the annual commencements. Who will be first to offer a prize next year? The announcement ought to be made at the commencement held next month.

Mrs. Catharine Coleman, widow of the late Jessie Coleman died at Ashland at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Kester, on Tuesday morning, aged 75 years. The remains will be brought here to-day (Friday), on the Reading road at 11:48, and be taken to the Lutheran Church, where services will be held before burial.

Mrs. Coleman was a daughter of George Kelchner of Briarcreek township, this county, and two of her sisters are still living, Miss Hettie Kelchner of Briarcreek, and Mrs. Reynolds of Bloomsburg. Her husband was Prothonotary of this county for six years, and died six years ago. Her remaining children are S. Bruce Coleman of Huntington Mills, Luzerne county, and Mrs. Kester of Ashland, George Coleman, another son died about twenty years ago. The family lived at Orangeville for many years, and Mrs. Coleman will be remembered by very many of the older people of the county. She was an estimable lady, and a consistant member of the Lutheran Church.

Water was let into the Pennsylvania Canal Saturday. The boating season will soon open, with the prospect of trade as good as it has been for many years. Each year we hear it said that the canal will be abandoned, but as long as the cost of transportation by boat is not more than one-half what it is by rail, the canal will be kept in use. In former years it was the only means the Pennsylvania railroad had of reaching the coal fields, but since they now have such a network of railroads they reach the coal fields with their own rails and leave the traffic on the canal almost exclusively to a few individual coal operators. Very little repairs are being made upon the canal from year to year, and as soon as it can be utilized for a road bed for a railroad we can look for the abandonment; which may come in a short time and may be deferred for years. The only indications of abandonment is the fact that few new boats are being built and the old ones are run as long as possible before they are called in for repairs.

The row of five double houses on Sixth street, near the Silk Mill, being erected by Joseph Ratti are progressing nicely. The brick work will soon be completed.

GIDDING & SALSBURG'S OPENING.

Notwithstanding the heavy rain, the new store of Gidding & Salsburg was crowded full, and as many more people were in front unable to get in, on Wednesday evening, their opening night. The store and windows were beautifully decorated with lilies, ferns and flowers, and the new and attractive goods were very tastefully arranged. Chas. P. Elwell's orchestra was stationed in the rear of the store, and played excellent music during the entire evening. The proprietors, Messrs Gidding & Salsburg, appeared in full dress suits, and welcomed all their visitors in a very courteous manner. All the ladies were presented with souvenirs.

These young men come here as entire strangers, and they took this novel and attractive method of opening, in order to get acquainted with the people, and to call attention to their fine stock of clothing, hats, caps, neck-wear, gents' furnishing goods, &c. They are very energetic, and if push will accomplish success they have come here to stay. Read their big advertisement in this issue.

Resolutions on the withdrawl of Rev. Dr. Davis from the Christian Endeavor Society of the Orangeville Presbyterian church.

Every precaution should be taken to keep our town clean. Filth of every character ought not to be allowed in any part of the town. It will breed disease of some form. The experience of the past winter teaches us that all forms of contagious diseases are lurking about us. Epidemics of measles, scarlet-fever, small-pox, and all forms of throat troubles, have prevailed in neighboring towns, and while Bloomsburg has been practically free from all these troubles, cleanliness alone will determine whether these pestilences shall be kept out. Our Board of Health should keep on the lookout; and if any mild form of these dread diseases make its appearance, a strict enforcement of the ordinance should be resorted to before it fastens upon us.

Father McCann has engaged Prof. Beard, of Reading for April 21st at the Opera House, to give his illustrated lecture on the celebrated Passion Play which brings thousands to Ober-Ammergau every ten years.

This will be welcome news to many of our citizens who have read and heard considerable of this play. A full description of the play is given by this most popular lecturer aided by brilliant, correct and nicely colored views.

CHURCH GOING.

A Philadelphia pastor is making some pertinent inquiries into the reason why men do not go to church. He thinks that the proportion of men in that city who attend church is not above ten per cent. and is anxious to learn why this is so.

Philadelphia is not singular in this matter. Everywhere the congregations are made up largely of women. Bloomsburg has a population of 6000. It is considered a church going town. It contains nine churches, with a seating capacity of about 2000. On pleasant Sunday mornings or where there is some special attraction at the churches, there may be as many as one thousand people in attendance, but this is unusual. This is only about 17 per cent. or one-sixth of the entire population. Estimating the number of children who are too young to go to church at two thousand, leaves still three thousand people who for some reason or other do not attend. Why is this? Most of the churches are attractive, the pastors are able, the music is good. And yet there are hundreds of young men who prefer to stand around the streets on Sunday night for a couple of hours, when there is plenty of room for them in the churches. It is a subject worthy of public attention, and a discussion of the subject is invited in these columns.

If any one can give any statement showing our estimates to be incorrect; or if any one can give reasons why so many do not go to church, or why they ought not to go; or if any one will give reasons why every seat in every church should be filled every Sunday, the articles will be printed without the names of the writers, if desired. Let there be a general talk on the subject.

CLOSING LECTURE.

The last lecture for this season, of the Student's Lecture Course, will be given this Friday evening, April 14.

The talented young orator James M. Beck, Esq, of Philadelpeia will deliver his wonderfully fascinating lecture entitled "The Stranger with the Thread bare Coat."

Diagram now open at Brooke & Co's.

The Assessors are on their rounds now. They should not forget to hunt up all the dogs in town, and tax them to the fullest extent. With few exceptions the hundreds of dogs that infest our town limits are of no earthly good. They destroy flowers and keep people awake nights with their baying at the moon, and otherwise make nuisances of themselves. Tax them.

Mrs. A. A. Butler is breaking ground for a new house, adjoining her brick residence on Fifth street.

Upon two globes in the centre are the profile heads of Columbus and Liberty above a figure of an eagle with outstretched wings. At the bottom are the words "Postage two cents.

An aerolite fell near the town of Osawatomie, Kansas, last Saturday afternoon striking the monument to John Brown or "Osawatomie Brown" as he was sometimes called, erected to him by private subscription originated by Horace Greeley in 1863. The meteor broke off the left arm of the statue and passed through the dome and nave in a slightly southeasterly direction and through six feet of clay just south of the Crypt, stopping only at bedrock. Experts say the aerolite is composed of pelium metal known to exist only in the sun.

The hall of the Y. M. C. A., was well filled on Monday evening. The programme consisted of recitations by Prof. W. H. Butts, and Miss May Evans, singing by the Male choir, and a lecture by Fred Ikeler Esq, subject, "Agitators." The entertainment was an interesting one throughout.

THE TELEPHONE GIRL.

"Well," said Mr. Roland Wayne, when he came into his office, after several days' illness with a wretched neuralgia, which affected him whenever the east wind blew, "you got some one for the telephone—did you, Burns?"

"Yes, sir," the head clerk replied. "The young lady has been here since Tuesday."

"Young lady!" exclaimed Mr. Wayne, testily. "Why did you get a woman? A broker's office is no place for a woman."

"Why, you see, sir," said Burns, with an obvious embarrassment and apprehensive glances towards a light oaken partition behind which the operator sat in concealment, "you did not say anything about that—only that Mr. Richards had his hands full with the wires and that there should be some one to take charge of the telephone; so I——"

"That is just like you, Burns," said Mr. Wayne, stamping back into his private office. "Any one else would have known better."

"Why, you see, sir," said Burns, in a defensive tone, as he followed him back, "I didn't think it would make much difference. The young lady is very capable and she seemed to want the place so badly. She is very poor, sir, and supports her mother. I know something about her, you see."

"Oh! Some flame of yours, I suppose, Burns? Very nice arrangement for you, no doubt."

"I beg your pardon, sir," said Burns, in an offended manner. "I am a married man."

"By Jove, so you are," said Roland Wayne, with a laugh. "I had forgotten that. Though," he added humorously, "that doesn't always make a difference. Well, try her, anyhow. Where's the mail, please?"

"I tell you what, Burns," one of the other clerks observed, when that individual finally emerged from Mr. Wayne's office, "the boss is in a fly humor, isn't he?"

"He's all right," Burns answered warmly. "He has given me a ticket to Atlantic City and two days off."

The clerk whistled.

"Why, I thought he was going to take your head off."

"You don't know him. I am sure it is no shame to a man whose nerves are always twinging with neuralgia if he loses his temper now and then."

Roland, meanwhile, had taken up his pen and was writing a lengthy account of Brisket's new deal in P., Y. and M.

"If the cat jumps this way," he said in conclusion, "the bears have got him sure. Danbury is on our side. He has given Brisket the cold shoulder, and, if I am not mistaken somebody will get woefully left. I don't intend that it shall be me. If everything goes as I think it will I shall pocket $200,000, and then I am going out of the brokerage business. It doesn't suit me, and my health is so poor that I must get away somewhere or I shall go to pieces."

"I beg your pardon, sir," said a soft, tremulous voice at his elbow. "I am Miss Archer, Mr. Wayne."

Roland dropped his pen and rose politely as he saw a slight, graceful figure in black standing before him.

"Be seated, Miss Archer," he said with a smile, which no man could have withheld when he saw the fairness of her fresh young face, and that shy, sweet flush on her cheeks. "What can I do for you?"

"I am the telephone operator," she began rapidly, and with a nervousness she could not conceal. "I could not help hearing what you said to Mr. Burns a little while ago, and—and I came to say that if you are not satisfied to have me in the office you need only say so."

"Not satisfied!" Roland echoed in manifest confusion. "Well, really, you know, I have not given you a trial; and as to what I said a while ago, I am sorry, Miss Archer. I am afraid you will have to set it down to neuralgia. I am quite willing to have you stay if you will."

"You are very kind,' she said, lacing and unlacing her fingers in some confusion. "I should like to stay—indeed it is very important that I should have this position or something else. But if what you say is true—if a broker's office is no place for a woman—I—I think I would rather not stay."

How Ronald Wayne abused himself when he thought of his careless words, and then marked how her lips quivered, how her eyelids drooped to keep back the tears!

"I think I spoke too hastily, Miss Archer," he said. "A lady's place is where she makes it. We are not a lot of savages," he added with a warm smile. "If you remain here I think I can assure you courteous and considerate treatment on the part of every one in this office. If such is not accorded you you have only to inform me and I will know the reason why."

"You are very kind," said the girl, with a bright, fleeting smile. "I should like to stay. I really can not afford to resign my position."

"Then stay by all means," said Roland. And, to the edification of the clerks, he got up and opened the door for her when she went out.

After that he caught himself listening to the soft yet distant voice in the other room holding conversation over the phone.

When he was at home with an attack of neuralgia and had to communicate with the office by wire, he often remarked how well he could hear Miss Archer's voice when all the others had ebbed away into a babel of sound.

"Burns did a fine thing when he got that girl into the office," he mused one day when he was kept a prisoner very inopportunely. "I don't know what we should do without her, now especiallyt it's bad enough as it is. I couldn't have an attack at a worse time. But I guess everything's all right. Danbury's good for any amount this side of a million. By Jove, though, it would be rough on me if anything went wrong now. It would clean me out completely."

He was walking up and down the room, trying to repress the nervous agitation which attacked him.

"Seven o'clock!" he said, glancing at the time. "The office is closed long ago. In another hour Brisket will sign over those bonds, and then—hello!" as the shrill alarm of the telephone summoned him across the room. "There is no one at the office," he thought, taking up the receiver. "I wonder what's up now? Hello! Who are you?"

"Helen Archer, Mr. Wayne," said a voice he knew well.

"Why, what are you doing at the office this time of night?" he asked, involuntarily.

"I am not at the office—that is, not at your office. I am at the Central Station. Can you hear me?"

"Yes."

"I have something important to tell you. Our wire got crossed with Mr. Brisket's to-day, and I could hear every word said over it. I could not understand what they were talking about, only Mr. Brisket was talking to a man named Danbury."

"Danbury!" exclaimed Wayne, in great excitement.

"They were talking about bonds, and said a lot of things I couldn't comprehend, but at last your named was mentioned.

"'This will put Wayne in a hole,' Mr. Brisket said.

"'Yes' said Mr. Danbury it'll bury him alive. It's a good thing he's shelved to-night. There is no danger, I suppose, of his getting wind of this before 8 o'clock.'

"'No danger at all,' said Mr. Brisket 'if you don't go back on me. There will be a new deal around and we'll boost the market over Wayne's head.'

"Do you hear distinctly what I say?" she inquired.

"Yes, yes!" Wayne said, excitedly. "What else?"

"Nothing more that I could understand, except that they were to meet at the Continental Hotel to-night. I came here because I was afraid to talk from the office. I thought some one might get on our wire, and I have you here direct. That's all. Good-by."

For Roland Wayne to dress and leave the house was the matter of a very short while after he had received this message from Helen Archer. His illness and the danger of exposure were quite forgotten.

He was present, very unexpectedly to Mr. Brisket and Mr. Danbury, at the evening conference at the hotel.

It was a stormy scene that ensued between Royland Wayne and these two men who had combined against him—a scene from which the young broker issued pale with exhaustion, but still triumphant.

What had passed no one knew, but the next day the street was fairly electrified by the news that Wayne was closing up his affairs to go abroad.

"That will throw us all out," said Burns, gloomily.

Helen Archer heard the news with a sinking heart. She was late that night in going home, having some small errands to attend to on her way, and, moreover, her steps lagged with the consciousness that she had bad news to carry to her ailing mother.

"You are late, Nelly," Mrs. Archer said, as she came in. "This gentleman has been waiting to see you for some time."

It was Ronald Wayne who rose and held out his hand warmly.

"Miss Archer," he said, "I have come to thank you for the service you did me last night. Thanks to you, I have saved my fortune from absolute ruin. If it had not been for your prompt action I should have been a beggar to-day."

"I—I had no idea it was so serious as that," Helen said hastily. "I am very glad I could do you such a service."

"I shall never forget it," Roland said, with a steadfast look into her soft, gray eyes, "and I have learned a wholesome lesson. When I went into the brokerage business I did not dream that so much of my intercourse would be with men wholly devoid of conscience or principle. I am sick and disgusted. Last night I had expected to make $200,000 by one transaction. To-day I find myself thanking heaven—and you—that I got out without losing anything. I am tired of such chances. I do not feel that I can enter into contract with men like Brisket and Danbury without compromising myself, and so I have decided to get out altogether."

"I understand that you are going out of business," said Helen, quietly.

"Yes, I am. I shall close up the office as soon as possible."

"I expected that, and—and I don't wish to trouble you, Mr. Wayne, but if you see an opening for me anywhere, would you be so kind as to remember me?"

"I have just been talking to your mother," said Roland, bowing to Mrs. Archer. "I am going abroad. My health requires it, but I do not like the idea of going alone. I want you and your mother to accompany me. It will do you both good—indeed, you need it as much as I—and I won't take a refusal."

This is how Helen Archer took her first trip to Europe. When she came home Roland Wayne had got her a situation as—his wife.—Waverly Magazine.

WOMAN'S WORK AND AIMS.

Mrs. Margaret Sunderland Cooper, the only woman awarded a gold medal by the American Humane Association, is a member of the Society of Letters and Art of London, England.

The Lady Mayoress of York enjoys the distinction of being the only English mayoress who wears an official chain of office. The custom dates back to the beginning of the seventeenth century, when an exquisitely-worked chain of gold was presented to the then mayoress, and has been handed down in lineal civic succession ever since.

The famous Bryn Mawr School, near Philadelphia, has for its medical director a lady, Doctor Kate Campbell Hurd, who is the daughter of a physician, and after her college course had practical experience in hospital and dispensary in Boston, then took up athletics under Professor Sargent, and finally visited England, France, Germany and Scandinavia, to study her specialties still further.

Mrs. Flora M. Kimball, of California, selected the trees and superintended their planting on seven miles of the streets of National City, Cal. She was selected by the supervisors as the most competent person to direct this work of town improvement, and it was a labor of love with her. Mrs. Kimball is an authority in horticulture and arboriculture, and a contributor to many periodicals.

Miss Jogaunadham, who was the first Hindoo woman to study medicine in England, was for a while resident medical officer in the Edinburgh hospital for women and children, and is now house physician at the Cama hospital in Bombay. Inspired by her success, another Hindoo woman, Miss Gorindurajulu, has begun a course in Spurgeon Square, London. She had been house surgeon in the hospital at Mysore, and the Mysore government has given her two years' absence and her expenses.

Perhaps the only woman who was ever buried like a warrior with the stars and stripes for a winding-sheet was the late Mrs. Cutter. She will be remembered for her bravery at the battle of Fort Donelson, when she snatched the colors of her husband's regiment from their fallen bearer, and rushed through the smoke with the flag in one hand and a sword in the other. After the war she made the care of veterans and their families the charge of her life. She is buried among the soldiers in Arlington Cemetery.

It is not true, it now appears, that ladies, to the number of five or six, are in the habit of following the Devon and Somerset stag-hounds astride upon their horses, after the manner of men. Only one female rider makes bold to bestride her horse with these famous hounds, and as yet she has no imitators. One swallow does not make a summer, and it is not probable that this bold, and very likely bad, rider's example will affect her sisters, or abolish the side-saddle. She is probably a bad rider, because some horsemen say that a side-saddle gives a more secure seat than a man's. To ride in a side-saddle is also a prettier attitude for a woman than to sit astraddle of her horse. In parts of the south of Europe women habitually bestride their mules and ponies, and the seat is ugly. If hunting-women find they neither look well nor go well on a man's saddle they will certainly abide by the side-saddle of their fore-mothers.

Mrs. Ella Nelson Gaillard, who was a Maryland belle in her youth, has since distinguished herself as an inventor. Among her inventions are the amusing automatic toy called the "Irrepressible Conflict," being the figures of an Irishman and an African engaged in a fierce fight; the eyeless needle, now almost universally used by surgeons; the musical top, which plays a full tune while spinning; a folding basin for travelers, a folding flat-iron, a novel bird-cage chain, a musical fountain, which renders music while throwing a stream of water from a statuette with such precision that not a drop escapes to spoil the carpet; a dress shield and a "sweat band" for hats, both said to be superior to anything previously known; a carriage telephone, a musical paper-weight, and a lock which enables any one, by simply looking at the key, to determine whether the door is fastened or not, the locking being registered on the key. The musical paper-weight has a calendar attachment, and is in the form of a stem-winding watch. The face of the weight indicates the day, month and year.

HUNDREDS MAY BE DEAD

Fearful Explosion in a Mine at Ponty-Pridd.

MANY UNFOATUNATES ENTOMBED.

Over 300 Miners Still in the Workings With but Little if Any Chance of Being Rescued Alive—The Calamity Caused by Sparks From an Engine—Rescuing Parties Hard at Work.

LONDON, April 12.—A frightful mining accident occurred yesterday at Ponty-Pridd, Wales. A spark from an engine ignited the gas in the coal pit near Ponty-Pridd and caused the gas to explode. A large number of miners were at work at the time and the explosion caused terrible havoc. The exact number of lives lost is not known, but it is rumored that twenty persons were killed and many others were more or less seriously injured.

Later accounts from Ponty-Pridd show the situation to be more appalling than at first supposed. Over 300 miners are entombed in the mine.

The engine house is destroyed and there is the greatest fear that hundreds may have perished. The rescuers who went down were driven back without being able to bring up more than five of the dead and the fate of the other miners is in doubt. The most agonizing scenes are witnessed, and throngs of men, women and children, relatives of those below are crowding about the mouth of the coal pit.

Still later advices from Ponty-Pridd do not lighten the calamity, and the worst fate is feared for hundreds of miners. The pit is worked in sections, one seam being above another. The fire resulting from the explosion broke out in the eastern section. From this section seventy men succeeded in reaching the surface through the main dip working, led by a miner who knew the roads.

They had a terrible struggle to get out, forcing their way through fire and smoke. Many of them were scorched and all were terribly exhausted when they emerged to safety. They brought no good news as to those who were left behind, but on the contrary expressed their dread that all those in the mine had perished.

Some of the Bodies Recovered.

LONDON, April 12.—At an early hour this morning it was impossible to obtain the full details of the accident in the Ponty-Pridd coal mine. The first alarm was given at 2.30 yesterday afternoon. The sparks from an engine in a four-foot seam are supposed to have ignited a pile of cotton waste. The flames spread to the wood work and finally ignited the inflamable gas in the seam. Flames and smoke gave to the 200 men at work in the seam the first warning of approaching danger. All ran toward the landing. Many were overtaken by the fire and smoke, fell, and were left to their fate by their comrades in advance of them. Comparatively few of the men who were in the seam at the time of the explosion reached the landing.

At the entrance of the shaft a rescuing party was formed by the pit surveyor. The party got as far as the landing at the seam where the fire started, but was driven back almost immediately by the dense smoke issuing from the seam. The surveyor took his men back to the surface. After a half hour's rest they went down again and forced their way ten yards into the working. They found four dead bodies, which they brought back with them. Attempts to go further into the workings were in vain, as the woodwork was burning and large masses of ruins were falling incessantly from the roof.

One of the rescuing party who ventured too far was killed. The men who saved themselves immediately after the fire broke out were too much confused and frightened to observe the position of their fellow workmen. They are unable to give any clear account of the distribution of the miners and the work of rescue must therefore proceed under all the difficulties of uncertainty.

There are numerous volunteers to further push the work of rescue as soon as it becomes possible. At present the flames and smoke would render any such undertaking vain, if not fatal to the party making the descent. There is little doubt, moreover, the most, if not all, of the men left below have been suffocated to death.

Could Not Reach the Bodies.

LONDON, April 12.—Hand grenades, barrels of water and pipes attached to fire engines on the surface are being used to extinguish the flames in the mines at Ponty-Pridd. In two sections of the mine the fire was put out. The extinction of the flames has been followed in each case, however, by the accumulation of gas, and it is feared that explosions may follow shortly. Another attempt to enter the seam in which the fire started has proved resultless. Although the rescue party saw six dead bodies they were prevented by smoke and heat from reaching them.

A Fierce Gale in Illinois.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Reports from points south of here state that a gale approaching a cyclone in severity is sweeping southern Illinois, Iowa and Missouri, and that much damage has been done. The wind has in a great measure prostrated the telegraph wires and full reports are not obtainable.

The Strike on the Santa Fe.

RATON, N. M., April 10.—The machinists, boiler makers and blacksmiths in the employ of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad at this place are still out on strike. A special from Albuquerque, N. M., announces that the men at that point have gone out.

Yesterday's Silver Purchase.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The treasury department yesterday purchased 411,000 ounces of silver as follows: 61,000, at $0.8805; 250,000, at $0.8810; 100,000 at $0.8820. The offers were 496,000 ounces. The purchases for the month aggregate 1,101,000.

Found Dead in Her House.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 10.—Mrs. George Taylor was found dead in her house near the Six Roads, about one mile south from here. Heart trouble was the cause, although foul play was first suspected, as that part of the country is a rendezvous of tramps.

Turkey Must Apologize Too.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The United States has taken vigorous action in regard to the outrages on American citizens at Marsovan, in the Turkish dominions, and the violations of the mails of the United States legation.

Hungary Shaken by an Earthquake.

VIENNA, April 10.—Earth shocks are reported from various parts of Hungary yesterday. The town of Semlin and Szegedin were rather severely shaken up. No great damage was done anywhere.

OUR HARRISBURG LETTER.

What Our State Lawmakers Are Doing at the Capital City.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—The fraternal societies have not been slow to take advantage of the protection afforded them by the Boyer bill. Already the Sexennial League has applied to the state department for corporation rights and other orders are expected to follow. In addition, Peter Boyd, the Sexennial League counsel, has secured a dismissal of the quo warranto proceedings instituted by the attorney general some months ago at the instance of certain parties who were desirous of throwing the league into the hands of a receiver. This action removes a drag from this order and its officers and members look for an era of renewed prosperity to date from the granting of corporation powers.

The house, after an extended debate which seemed to have no influence on the vote, has finally disposed of the local option bill by killing it, yeas 67, nays 102. This bill has been before the legislature since the beginning of the session, and has, by reason of its importance, attracted general attention, hundreds of petitions urging its passage having been received from all parts of the state. Previous to its defeat the way had been opened for general amendment at the morning session, and the house had lots of fun with the bill, putting in a lot of absurd amendments, all of which were afterward expunged.

The measure was drawn by ex-Chief Justice Agnew and that distinguished jurist has made special effort to secure its passage. Its defeat, therefore, will be a great disappointment to him as well as to many others who have worked in its behalf. The vote against the bill was so decisive that it is not likely that an effort will be made to secure a reconsideration.

The act establishing boards of arbitration to settle all questions of wages and other matters of variance between capital and labor passed the house finally with only eight votes against it. This measure is similar to the Wallace act passed in 1883. Each side to a dispute may apply to court for permission to appoint three arbitrators, but if one side fails to name its arbitrators they are to be named by the court. This is where the bill differs from the Wallace bill which only became operative when both sides applied for arbitrators.

The bill is educational in character, the duties of the arbitrators ending when they have reported their findings to the court.

The bill prohibiting railroad companies from employing railroad telegraph operators under the age of twenty years to handle train orders also passed finally. This bill is backed by the Order of Railway Telegraphers, and is designed to secure an increase in the amount of wages at present paid to railroad telegraphers.

Nothing has yet been done by the house ways and means committee with reference to the senate resolution providing for final adjournment of the legislature on May 11. Such slow progress is being made, however, that June 1 is now generally regarded as the date that will finally be fixed upon.

Higby's Expense Account.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—The democrats held a caucus yesterday afternoon to decide what course they will take with regard to the expense bill put in by Mr. Higby, of Crawford, in connection with his contest of Mr. Andrews' seat. The amount of the bill, over $2,800, is generally regarded as excessive and the democrats are inclined to repudiate it. The subject was referred to the executive committee, Messrs. Skinner, Fow, Wherry, Baker and Bernhard for report. Mr. Andrews has announced that he will not put in any bill.

NOW THE AUDITORS WILL BE PAID

Judge Reeder Hands Down an Important Decision.

EASTON, April 11.—An important opinion was filed yesterday by Judge Reeder in the case of Edward S. Packe et. al., borough auditors of South Bethlehem vs. the county of Northampton.

The case grew out of the refusal of the county commissioners to pay a bill of $51 presented by the auditors of South Bethlehem for work in preparing official ballots used at the recent election. Judge Reeder decided that the word "printing" in the act of assembly covered that part of the work performed by auditors in preparing copy for the printer and the commissioners thought otherwise. The auditors will now receive pay for as many day's work as they performed, and not for a single day as the commissioners claimed they were only entitled.

Threw the Coffin Out of the Hearse.

ST. LOUIS, April 11.—A distressing accident occurred at the Calvary cemetery during the funeral ceremonies attending the burial of Mrs. Mary Burke, of 4010 St. Ferdinand street. After entering the burial ground one of the horses attached to the hearse took fright, and, dragging the other along ran away. The hearse was upset and the coffin crashed through the glass side. The coffin was then carried by a number of men to the grave.

Captain Williams Drowned.

BRIDGETON, N. J., April 11.—Captain Isaac Williams, a well-known and much-respected sea captain, of this city, was drowned at sea on the 5th inst. A telegram came to his family yesterday announcing the fact. He was three days out from the Breakwater and fell overboard while assisting to furl a sail. The captain was well known in Philadelphia circles and throughout South Jersey.

Spanish Medals for Our Life Savers.

BALTIMORE, April 12.—Mateo Luis Perez, acting consul for Spain at this port, has received from the Spanish minister of marine one silver and eight bronze medals to be delivered to Captain John E. Johnson and the crew of the life-saving station at Hog Island, who, in September last, bravely rescued the crew of twenty-five of the Spanish steamship San Albano.

Murderer Salyards Captured.

CARLISLE, April 11.—"Charlie" Salyards the burglar who shot and killed Policeman Martin on Saturday night, was arrested at Winchester, Va., yesterday afternoon by the police authorities of that city. At the time of the murder he wore a long beard. Yesterday morning he had it removed by a Hagerstown barber, who sent a portion of it here for identification.

Michael Macgonigle Dead.

LANCASTER, April 12.—Michael Macgonigle, a well-known turfman, died yesterday from pneumonia, aged 68 years. He was the owner of a dozen noted racers, among them Hermod, Miss MacGregor and Silver Bell.

Miss Lizzie Miller Suicides.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 12.—Miss Lizzie Miller, daughter of Dr. Miller, of Springfield, Ohio, shot herself dead yesterday. She was engaged to wed Stewart Graham, of Battle Creek, Mich., a cadet at the naval academy.

The Spring,

Of all seasons in the year, is the one for making radical changes in regard to health. During the winter, the system becomes to a certain extent clogged with waste, and the blood loaded with impurities, owing to lack of exercise, close confinement in poorly ventilated shops and homes, and other causes. This is the cause of the dull, sluggish, tired feeling so general at this season, and which must be overcome, or the health may be entirely broken down. Hood's Sarsaparilla has attained the greatest popularity all over the country as the favorite Spring Medicine. It expels the accumulation of impurities through the bowels, kidneys, liver, lungs and skin, gives to the blood the purity and quality necessary to good health and overcomes that tired feeling.

Cause and Effect.

"Cynthia," said Col Calliper to his wife as they sat at dinner, "whom do you think I met to-day?"

"I don't believe I could guess, Jason," said Mrs. Calliper.

"I don't believe you could, Cynthia," the Colonel said. "It was Silas Gidby, who used to live in Starkville Centre, Vt. He went South about fifteen years ago, and he has made a fortune. His going was brought about in a singular manner. Silas used to have the reputation in Starkville Centre, you know, of being very close; some folks called him mean; he hated to spend a dollar, and he never did if he could help it. One fall when he got out his winter overcoat, which had been packed up during the summer, he found that the moths had got into it and pretty nearly destroyed it; it wasn't fit to wear. Silas hated dreadfully to spend the money for another one, and he made up his mind that he wouldn't. He had been thinking some of going South; the overcoat settled it; he went. He located in one of those towns that have grown so, and he has made a lot of money. Curious, isn't it, how things come about? You see, the moths getting in the overcoat practically made him rich."

"Jason," said Mrs. Calliper, "do you know what I am going to do with your winter overcoat when you take it off this spring?"

"I think I could guess, Cynthia. Put it where the moths will eat it up," the Colonel said.

"Right, Jason," said Mrs. Calliper.

I was a sufferer from catarrh for fifteen years, with distressing pains over my eyes. I used Ely's Cream Balm with gratifying results. Am apparently cured. Z. C. Warner, Rutland Vt.

I suffered from a severe cold in my head for months and could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known.—Samuel J. Harris, Wholesale Grocer, 119 Front St,, New.

THE SENATORS DO PLAIN TALKING

On the Roach Case While in Executive Session.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Roach case came prominently to the front yesterday in the executive session of the senate and was the cause for some rather plain talk from both sides of the chamber. The senate only went into secret session after a yea and nay vote in which it was developed that the democrats had enough members present, added to the republicans to propound an inquiry as to what the other side meant by refusing to permit the committee on privileges and elections to report the resolution relative to the contest of Mr. Martin's seat by Mr. Ady, a resolution that had been agreed upon in the committee at the meeting Saturday, and further, why they had exhibited, what appeared to be bad faith, in the Roach resolution which republicans contended had been agreed to by democrats on the floor of the senate.

This at once precipitated a discussion in which it was developed that the democrats were opposed to taking up the Roach case at this time and wanted to postpone any further action until the next session of congress. It was declared by democratic leaders, as had been stated by them before, that if the Roach case was to be gone into there were others that should be taken up as well. The republicans retorted that they were afraid of no investigation concerning any of their members but they insisted that some positive action should be taken in this particular case.

The democrats said that they were willing the resolution should be modified so as to instruct the committee to report whether or not they had the authority to make the investigation concerning the previous acts of a senator; but the republicans urged that this did not go far enough and insisted that the committee should be still further authorized to go ahead and make the investigation if they found they had such authority. It was this counter proposition that the democrats opposed and after a long discussion of the two views so vehemently adhered to by the respective sides the question was laid aside without any definite action being taken.

The Martin case was given its share of the debate, the republicans contending that the committee on privileges and elections should report the resolution as adopted at its meeting, and that the work contemplated under the resolution should be prosecuted during the recess of the senate. From the debate that ensued representatives assert that they draw the conclusion that the democrats do not intend to do anything in this case, and will, if possible, refuse to look into the question of the legality of the seat now occupied by Mr. Martin.

The nomination of Mr. Eckels to be comptroller of the currency was favorably reported, but confirmation did not follow, it going over for a day under the rules, there being an objection to its present consideration.

Who Some of the Appointees Are.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Following are brief sketches of the careers of those nominated for the more prominent government positions by President Cleveland yesterday:

Conrad N. Jordan, nominated to be assistant treasurer at New York, is well known to the country as United States treasurer under Mr. Cleveland's first administration. He is 63 years of age and has had nearly forty years' experience in the banking business. He began his career as a runner in the Hannibal bank of New York City.

Daniel N. Morgan, of Bridgeport, Conn., who has been appointed United States treasurer, succeeds E. H. Nebeker, of Indiana, at a salary of $6,000. Mr. Morgan is about 50 years of age and a native of Connecticut. He has for years past occupied a leading position in social, financial and political circles. He has served as mayor of Bridgeport for three terms, and is at present a member of the state senate.

Daniel M. Browning, of Illinois, succeeds General Thomas J. Morgan, of Rhode Island, as commissioner of Indian affairs, at a salary of $4,000 a year. He resides at Benton, is about 50 years of age, and a lawyer by profession.

Edward H. Strobel, of New York, succeeds William M. Grinnell, of the same state, as third assistant secretary of state, at a salary of $3,500 per annum. He served through Mr. Cleveland's first term and a part of the succeeding republican administration as secretary of the legation at Madrid. He is a graduate of Harvard college and Harvard law school, having been a member of the class of '79. At present he is practicing law, and is said to be a man of high attainments.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1893.

The Legislature has agreed upon May 11, as the day for final adjournment.

A bill has passed the Senate finally rendering women eligible to the office of Notary Public.

The publication of the mercantile appraiser's list will soon be abolished. The bill has passed the Senate finally.

Now is time for farmers to plant trees. An Act of the Legislature provides that for every four trees planted along the roadside the farmer shall be allowed a rebate of one dollar on his road tax. The rebate will be sufficient to pay the expense of the tree planting, and the farmer will have the entire profit arising from the growth of the trees.

At Trenton, N. J. a novel plan is to be used to settle the question of who shall be named as postmaster. There are two factions of democrats in the city, and the Congressman being a republican the settlement of the contest was given into the hands of Senator McPherson (dem.) The Senator was thrown into a great quandary by this. Although he is serving his third term in the Senate he wants another, and is anxious to make as few enemies as possible to throw obstacles in his way. So after thinking the matter over he concluded to let the people decide it, and said that he would submit the question to the Democratic voters of the city, and abide by their decision.

Judge Porter, of Pittsburg, has decided that free lunches, when furnished in liquor saloons, are illegal, basing his view upon the fact that numbers of wives of mill workers have complained to him "that their husbands did not come home regularly to their meals, and that one of the reasons why they did not was because of the attractions held out to them by saloon keepers in the form of free lunches. If these inducements keep husbands from home, the inducement must be abolished." If this be law what is to become of the free lunch fiends, so many of whom have been enjoying the luxuries provided by saloon keepers? Their occupation will be gone.—Ex.

A vessel has just arrived from Hamburg, with nearly 500 immigrants. It will be remembered that Hamburg was the centre of the cholera plague last summer. Professor Virchon, an able authoritity on the subject of cholera says that America may be able to repel the germs of cholera this year, but that it will return in Europe with greater severity. The people over the water fearing the disease are hastily departing for this country, and we can expect many cases during the summer, although it may not this year reach a very severe epidemic, the germs will be sown for another season. It is necessary that every precaution should be taken before the disease fastens itself upon us. Cleanliness is the greatest barrier to its progress.

Amending the Baker Ballot.

Ex-Speaker Cessna, of Bedford, reported favorably to the house from the general judiciary committee a bill amending the Baker ballot law. It gives regular parties or bodies of citizens which have held state conventions for five years the right to official ballots, although they may poll less than three per cent. of the highest vote at the last election. Certificates of nominations for state offices shall be filed with the secretary of the Commonwealth forty-five days before the election, and nomination papers must be filed thirty eight days before the election. All other certificates and papers must be filed with county commissioners forty-five or thirty-eight days before the election. All objections to the validity of certificates or papers except those for legislature and congress must be filed in the court of common pleas of Dauphin county. Vacancies may be filled in accordance with sections two and three of the regular act. The secretary of the Commonwealth shall transmit to the county commissioners the official lists sixteen days instead of ten days before election. The sheriff is exempt from giving notice of city elections. The ballots shall no longer contain the residence of the candidates. One set of ballots only are to be furnished voters. All ballots and cards of instruction must be sent to the voting places on the Saturday before the elections.

There will be serious trouble if you don't overcome those dyspeptic symptoms. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine you need.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, April 10, 1893.

President Cleveland has a remarkable capacity for standing long hours of hard work, and it has been put to a severe test since his inauguration, as it has been the exception rather than the rule when he has been able to retire before 2 o'clock in the morning, and he is always at his desk again before 8 o'clock. Feeling the need of a little undisturbed rest, he, in company with Secretary Gresham, left Washington Saturday afternoon and they will not return until to morrow. His destination was not made public for fear that he might be followed by some of the importunate office seekers, anxious to personally present their claims. They went to see Ambassador Bayard at his home in Wilmington, Delaware.

The investigation of the Weather Bureau, now being publicly conducted after office hours at the Department of Agriculture, is a very nasty mess as far as it has gone, and it promises to grow even nastier. The property of the bureau has, according to the testimony, been stolen and sold to junk dealers whenever certain of the minor officials needed a little extra whiskey money, and the stealing was done in broad daylight, the employees of the bureau being used to load it upon wagons. About everything seems to have been included in the thefts, upon one occasion a stone step being taken from the building itself. The principal men implicated thus far are the foreman of the press room and the Captain of the watch, but others higher up are said to have received a portion of the money, and it is expected that the evidence will prove it. Secretary Morton is determined to get to the bottom of the filth and to see that every guilty man is punished, regardless of who he may be or who may be his friends.

Major General Schofield and Major General Miles have had a squabble at long range over the trouble in Indian Territory. The quarrel is understood to have occurred over the carrying out of an order for the detail of an army officer to investigate the trouble. No United States troops will be sent there unless the Secretary of the Interior requests it.

President Cleveland said he intended to get the very best man in the country, who was available, to be Commissioner of Pensions, and the general approbation of the nomination of Judge Wm. Lochren, of Minnesota to the position indicates that he succeeded. Judge Lochren was not an applicant for the position, indeed, he at first declined to accept it, but withdrew his objections when his party duty and loyalty were appealed to by the President. His war record is of the bravest, and although he is not a member of the G. A. R., no member of that organization has so far as known had a word to say against his special fitness for the position. He was born in Vermont, but has resided in Minnesota since 1857, with the exception of the time he served in the army. He will take charge of the Pension Bureau about May first.

Secretary Morton found not only individuals employed by the Agricultural department who were not rendering services in anything like a fair proportion to the salaries they receive, but a whole division of employes who have been practically paid for doing nothing for more than a year. This was the quarantine division of the Bureau of Animal Industry, which Secretary Morton has just abolished. Quite a howl has been raised by the republicans because the chief of the abolished division happened to be the late Mr. Blaine's brother, although it is difficult to understand why that should have made the slightest difference. Surely they did not expect that a democratic administration would feel called upon to take care of the poor members of the Blaine family.

Secretary Lamont hasn't been doing much talking—he never does—but that he has been doing some investigating and thinking is shown by his statement that no more army officers will be detailed for ornamental purposes. This may be a little rough on the army officers who have been calculating to spend the summer at the World's Fair and the various summer resorts, but no one can deny that it is just to the people who pay these men their salaries, and doubly just to the officers without "pull" who have to perform, in addition to their own, the duties of the butterflies of the profession.

Postmaster General Bissell has decided that no fourth class postmasters shall be removed, except for cause, until they shall have served all or nearly all of a four year term. This is a new rule, as these officials have never been considered to have a fixed term, but were removable at the pleasure of the department. The change is understood to have been made by the direction of the President, and after all it will make no difference in the end, because there are so many who have served four years or more that by the time they are removed nearly all of the rest will have become removable under the new rule.

Hood's Cures

Of Philadelphia.

A Week of Writing

Would Not Tell the Story

Scrofula for Seven Years—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"A week devoted to writing would not be sufficient to tell of the good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me. Seven years ago a running sore appeared on my ankle, which grew worse until it entirely covered my foot and the bones came out of my toes. Then the sores appeared on my other foot, right arm and hand. Holes were eaten in my lower limbs, my arm was one great sore from the shoulder down, and the bones came out of two of my fingers. Words

Cannot Tell My Sufferings.

I could not sleep and had no appetite. About three years after the first appearance of the disease my husband read of what Hood's Sarsaparilla had done for others, and urged me to try it. I was confined to the bed at the time, had given up all hope. However, I commenced taking the medicine, and before I had finished the bottle, could sleep, and not only eat, but enjoy my food. Now the

with the exception of one spot on my limb. I thank God for having directed my husband's attention to Hood's Sarsaparilla, otherwise I should have been in my grave. I can now move about with the aid of crutches, and will always need their assistance, but anyone who had seen my condition when I commenced to take would marvel that I am now alive to move at all." MRS. MARY SPEAKMAN, 2725 Latona Street, Philadelphia.

Pennsylvania People Benefitted.

MRS. CARRIE BOUTON GAINED IN FLESH 68 LBS. TO 121 1-2 LBS. BY THE USE OF A SIMPLE REMEDY.

MEN AND WOMEN INTERESTED.

"It is astonishing," said one of our physicians the other evening, "how many of the ordinary diseases people suffer from come from the one cause—excess of uric acid in the blood. To discover a medicine that would dissolve this acid has puzzled thousands of the best men of the medical profession, until Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., produced what is known the world over as Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. The great value we place in Favorite Remedy comes from the fact that it is the only medicine that will effectually dissolve this acid thus curing rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles and the sicknesses women suffer from These and many more troubles all come from the one cause, as I said before, this death dealing uric acid."

Perhaps there has been no one person in Wyoming Co., Pa., that has suffered more than Mrs. Carrie Bouton, formerly of Schottville, but now of Harvey's Lake, Luzerne Co. Mrs. Bouton, in relating her restoration to health, said: "From a growing girl I suffered from female trouble or weakness peculiar to my sex. Several physicians prescribed for me but I found no relief. I was reduced in flesh down to 68 pounds. By accident I heard of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and determined to try it, and to my great joy I began to realize that I had found a medicine that was doing me good. I think I had used five bottles when I found that I weighed 121½ pounds and was better in health than I ever was before.

Inquiry among Mrs. Bouton's neighbors shows that she states nothing but the facts in regard to her case. Many other instances of the kind are widely talked of in Scottsville, Tunkhannock, Wilkesbarre and other places where Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has effected many cures after physicians had given up hope.

"But," says one of our prominent druggists, "Favorite Remedy is equally efficacious in other diseases, as talks with people I have sold Favorite Remedy to affirm. To my knowledge right in our town Favorite Remedy has cured people suffering from rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles."

Since the publication in one of the New York medical journals of the case of Mr. E. P. Tayer, of East Nassau, N. Y., Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has been increasing in sale. Mr. Tayer had suffered for fifteen years with inflammatory rheumatism. His case was practically abandoned by his physicians. Favorite Remedy was brought to his notice and in less than three months after its use he was a well man.

In commenting on this case Dr. W. H. Morse, of New York City, says: The great good in Favorite Remedy lies in its power to dissolve this deadly uric acid. In cases of dyspepsia, eczema, scrofula or any urinary diseases I have never known it to fail, when taken according to directions. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is not only used by physicians now but can be found on sale by every medicine dealer.— Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) Times.

East and West at the Fair.

Western papers show an intense interest in the world's fair, which is in marked contrast with the apparent indifference of the East. We believe that Eastern indifference is only apparent and that when the fair is at last fully underway there will be no lack of attention given it, but at present the general feeling in the East seems to be one of reserve and cautious distrust. Jealous New York newspapers have not failed to repeat and amplify every story of Chicago narrowness and thrift until those who contemplate a visit to the fair only wonder whether they will get back with their skins and scalps. Throughout the West the newspapers, great and small, have for weeks been printing columns of news and gossip about this colossal exposition, and of course they would not do this if there was not a demand for that kind of reading.

The fact is that the people of the West travel much more and much further than the people of the East. The average Western man or woman thinks nothing of a thousand mile excursion The distances between points of interest or importance are vast. The average Easterner looks upon a trip to Chicago as a remarkable journey.

The view of money also has much to do with it. In the West it is quickly made and lost and carelessly spent. An easy liberality, which with us would be reckless extravagance, is there the rule. It is part of the "booming" policy of Western life. "If you are not wealthy have wealthy ways," appears to be the motto In consequence of this different attitude in the matter of travel and expense the people of the West will go to the fair in much greater numbers and from far greater distances than the people of the East.

There is a general public interest in the West because the general public is going to the fair and the newspapers can not print enough about it for them.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

A little ill, then a little pill. The ill is gone the pill has won. DeWitt's Little Early Risers the little pills that cure great ills. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14 1 yr.

The breaking up of the winter is the sign for the breaking up of the system. Nature is opening up the pores and throwing off refuse. De Witts's Sarsaparilla is of unquestionable assistance in this operation. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-1yr.

Russell, of the building trades council, appeared before the World's Fair council of administration in the afternoon with a communication, which he said the strikers wished him to make. In this the men stated that they did not wish to retard the work of the exposition, and would consequently be glad to leave the settlement of the trouble to arbitration.

They asked that the fair officials appoint one man while they would do the same, the two to select a third and all three to act as a board of arbitration. This offer, Mr. Russell said, would be open until today at 4 o'clock. If it is accepted the men will return to work pending the hearing of the evidence and the settlement of the trouble. It was remarked, however, but little attention would be paid to the offer as the World's Fair officials had been expecting the strike, and had made arrangements to secure 5,000 men who are now on their way here.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.

TO Farmer's and the PUBLIC -in- General.

We wish to say that we are still manufacturing and dealing in Agricultural implements at Orangeville, Pa., and certainly from long experience we should know the wants of the Farmers and public in general. And, in this connection we wish to say that all machinery we manufacture or handle is equal to any on the market, and sold at lowest prices.

We make a good cast head Land Roller, which every Farmer should have. Also Plows, Scotch Harrows, Cultivators, Wood Saws, Corn Shellers, and Feed Cutters, and a specialty of Horse Power Threshing Machinery. Then we handle the 'Empire" Fertilizer, Grain Drill and Hay Rake, "Hench's" Walking and Riding wheel Cultivators, "Woods" Harvesting machinery (which needs no recommendation), single and double Corn Cultivators, Engines and Saw Mills etc. Lastly we wish to show up the New Deerfield Lever Harrow the only one that has a separate adjustment for each tooth independent of the levers. The only four lever Harrow on the market whereby the two centre sections can be let down in a dead furrow, or any one or more of the four sections can be raised and the balance of the teeth kept at work, frame at all times being level. It has a self coupling hinge, no bolts or pieces to lose, with circular steel evener to equalize draft while turning corners. This Harrow is no experiment with us, and will be put out on their merits same as any other goods. KIE

We also make and carry a large stock of Plow repairs, also an endless variety of other implement repairs. We are also prepared to do almost any kind of saw or grist mill repairing (having recently put in new Iron Lathe and boring machinery etc. We also carry a full line of dressed building lumber. Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

The only four lever Harrow on the market whereby the two centre sections can be let down in a dead furrow, or any one or more of the four sections can be raised and the balance of the teeth kept at work, frame at all times being level. It has a self coupling hinge, no bolts or pieces to lose, with circular steel evener to equalize draft while turning corners.
